

THE ANALYTICAL OBSERVER

17TH OCTOBER 1873

ONE COMMONWEALTH FOR ALL

RUSTWRIGHT GANG TERRORISES LOCAL BUSINESSES

Many shops on Bridge Street had their windows smashed by anti-Intelligence hooligans protesting a new limitation on sweet rolls and similar goods. They ran after the Coppers arrived on the scene. Among the goods stolen in the attack was a large ruby. The Ministry of Leadership has resisted cracking down on the Rustwrights because of fears that innocents will be caught in the crossfire.

CITY REMEMBERS ANNIVERSARY OF COUNTESS LOVELACE'S DEATH

This week marks the two year anniversary of the tragic death of Countess Ada Lovelace. Memorials and celebrations of this great lady's life are being held across the Commonwealth, as we hail the progenitor of this modern age of prosperity. In Cambrige, a week-long exhibition of her early work is being hosted in the Fitzwilliam Museum, free for all to enter.

UNION PROTESTS INCREASED SHIFTS

The latest shift schedules set by Mother Forge have drawn criticism from the Union of Gearwrights and Allied Trades, saying "You'll get no good work done pushing people that hard." Talks have stalled on other concessions.

CHRONOMETRICS LABORATORY SHUT

The laboratory in Cherry Hinton which was researching advanced chronometrics has been shut down due to a lack of regard for safety procedures after a review by Safeguard. The lead researcher, Doctor Vasily Dmitriev, claimed that their research was entirely safe and wished to extend an opportunity for anyone who wanted to inspect the work.

SYMPOSIUM HELD TO GREAT ACCLAIM

The Society for Human Progress held a symposium at Cambridge University, inviting thinkers and analysts of the human mind and its workings. Index was quoted as saying "The research delivered here is providing an excellent return on the investment of their energy."

PERSONALS

- SEEKING discreet Technicians qualified at complex work #3C3D3C
- FOUND pocket knife with fine engravings, if yours send description to #732ED1
- TO Mr H. G. Best for you to ensure that #24 passes.
- SIGNAL ANALYSTS wanted at local chapter, Conductor at #112358

DO YOU HAVE NEWS?

Write to TAO Office, Teslagraph #FAB34B